

I think that the ARRL has studied this restructuring plan long and hard and have come up with a viable plan for all. This plan could help provide more qualified operators during an emergency or terrorist attack.